- Select Crimes report (3 months) shows a downward: eight (8) in August; six (6) in September; four (4) in October.

The property owner has signed a No-Trespass order that will allow public safety to arrest violators who enter the storage unit. The bus needs to be moved off-site.

Ms. Morales inquired about the occurrence at Rose and 1st. Deputy Sheppard was not present but suggested that it was a fire callout and likely someone needed medical attention.

Rodriguez has also reached out to C&H but has not received a response yet. PLC needs to determine how much to ask for. Mr. Pennisi suggested an overview of the project costs to help the supporters to make an offer. ADM Goodman provided the Chair with a contact at C&H. Ms. Goodman suggested that the PLC present a polished report for the Board. The Board will receive the report but will not be required to vote.

A discussion was had on whether to use the P20 account. The committee agreed not to touch those funds since it is for weekend patrol.
